Re: Lucian Bebchuk v. Electronics Arts Inc., CV 08-3716 (AKH)

Dear Judge Hellerstein:

We represent Professor Lucian Bebchuk in the above-referenced litigation.

By letter dated July 2, 2008, counsel for defendant Electronic Arts Inc. ("EA") informed the Court that the parties had agreed on a briefing schedule for EA's motion to dismiss, including the filing of any submissions by amicus curiae who wish to appear in this action. Under that schedule, Prof. Bebchuk's opposition to EA's motion – including responses to any amicus curiae supporting EA's position, and any submissions by amicus curiae supporting Prof. Bebchuk's position – are to be filed by August 29, 2008, with replies by EA submitted by September 26, 2008. See Docket No. 9 (Endorsed Letter dated July 2, 2008, from Jonathan Rosenberg, Esq., to The Hon. Alvin K. Hellerstein).

On Friday, August 22, 2008, Prof. Bebchuk was required to travel to Israel because his father needs surgery this week. As a result, Prof. Bebchuk requests an extension – until September 8, 2008, for the filing of his response to EA's motion to dismiss (and the U.S. Chamber of Commerce's amicus submission) and any submissions by amicus curiae in support of his position. Counsel for EA has stated that they do not oppose Prof. Bebchuk's request for an extension with the understanding that the filing deadline for their reply papers would be similarly extended.

This is the first request for an extension made on behalf of Prof. Bebchuk. The parties previously agreed to the schedule set forth in Mr. Rosenberg's July 2 letter in response to the request by EA to adjust the briefing schedule to accommodate the submissions of amicus curiae.

Accordingly, Prof. Bebchuk respectfully requests that the Court amend the briefing schedule as follows:

Bebchuk's opposition
(including responses to EA amici)
and Bebchuk's amici submissions

September 8, 2008

EA's reply brief
(including responses to the Bebchuk amici)

Respectfully,

Jay W. Eisenhofer
